○Read Rules of the Examination on the following beforehand.

Rules of the Examination

- Examinees need to bring an examination admission ticket to the examination site and must be seated at the desk with their examination ticket number on it.
- Examinees must arrive at the examination site 30 minutes before the examination start time. Examinees who arrive 20 minutes after the start of the examination will not be allowed to enter the examination room.
- If examinees are late for the examination, they should ask a staff member for instructions.
- Examinees are not allowed to use or borrow anything from other examinees in the examination room.
- Electronic equipment such as mobile phones, smartphones, and wearable devices must be deactivated; and placed in a bag before entering the examination room after their alarms are turned off. If these items are not put away or if the examinee holds or touches them during the examination, it may be considered as cheating during the examination. If earphones are in your ears then they are considered to be in use, which constitutes cheating.
- In case of an emergency including if the examinee feels sick during the examination, please contact the person-in-charge of the examination.
- In case an examinee loses their examination admission ticket, they need to inform an Admission Office or person-in-charge of the examination about it immediately.
- Examinees need to write their written examination ticket number and other information clearly on the distributed answering sheets as soon as an examination begins.
- During the written examination, examinees can keep the following items on their desk: an examination admission ticket, pencils (mechanical pencils are also allowed), erasers, pencil sharpeners (except electronic and large sharpeners and knives), a watch (except ones with a dictionary, a calculator, and terminal functions; ones for which it is difficult to determine whether such functions are present; ones that make a ticking sound; kitchen timers; and large watches.), rulers, glasses, handkerchiefs, tissue paper (not including the bag or box in which they were packed), and eye drops. The use of scientific calculators may be permitted depending on the specialized subject.
- Examinees are allowed to place only the items written above in section (9).
- In case an examinee is deemed to have cheated, all of their answering sheets will be invalid.
